2017.355	FDCA: Rodwell, Alison Photo album with material from Amelia & Charles Managh and Tokorangi School and other. Amelia Henrietta Managh nee Schwass was born in Waimea 8th August 1861 the second child of 14 children. Her father had arrived in New Zealand from Germany in 1855. The family moved to the Halcombe area as there was a strong Lutheran church community in Halcombe. She married Charles Managh on 3rd March 1880. They had 19 children. Charles came to new Zealand from County Tyrone in Northern Ireland in 1873. He arrived in the Manawatu and started work clearing land covered in bush and swamps eventually owning his own bullock team that allowed him to cart timber from the mill in Stanway Road to the rail in Halcombe. Charles brought many parcels of land on the Feilding Halcombe Road and there are still Managh descendants farming in the area. The black wool cloak belonged to Amelia and has been passed down through four generations.	12/07/2017	56
